

Xavier has a proven track record in entrepreneurship and has occupied various managerial roles at large corporations in the IT-telecommunications field such as Orange and Swisscom in the USA, France and Switzerland for more than 20 years. Positions include Business Innovation Manager, IT Strategy Lead and Strategy Manager. He has conducted cross-organization strategic projects across most corporate divisions and has first-hand experience in dealing with corporate politics and stakeholders.

A passionate corporate trainer, Xavier specializes in powerful experiential-learning workshops focusing on developing Leadership and Innovation in organisations. He is currently delivering a Human-Centric Leadership program for teams at Swisscom, at the intersection of design-thinking and co-active leadership.

Xavier is a Certified Professional Co-active® Coach (CPC), and Professional Certified Coach (PCC) by the International Coaching Federation. Xavier holds a M.Sc. in Business Informatics and Networks from Paul Sabatier University, Toulouse, France. He coaches professionals so they may “lead their world with soul”.

Xavier leads experiential workshops about Leadership and Innovation at Solvay/Ponts School MBA, Paris, HSG St Gallen and M.Sc. HEG-VD, HES-SO, Lausanne, Switzerland.

He is fluent English, French & Spanish with a strong command of German and Italian. In his spare time, Xavier enjoys hiking with his dog, practicing meditation and is a fan of heroic fantasy.